Maximum design freedom

Thanks to freely configurable units, a wide range of accessories, numerous design options, and various worktop options, Bistrino kitchens can be seamlessly integrated into virtually any interior concept. Their flexible design possibilities allow for customized kitchen solutions that combine outstanding functionality with an attractive appearance.

Designed for workplaces that bring people together

Whether as a communicative work café, a functional tea kitchen, or part of a modern canteen, Bistrino adapts to a wide variety of usage scenarios while creating spaces that promote interaction and productivity.

Integrated LED lighting provides optimal illumination of the work surface.

Available either with modern stainless steel handle or as a handleless version.

Inspiration

The Bistrino kitchen system offers fully customizable solutions with maximum design flexibility for modern workplaces and communal areas.
